NOTICE

Important guidelines for online examination

1. Online Examination does not mean Open Book Examination. Candidates are directed to submit their answer scripts written on the University supplied answer books to their respective Colleges/Departments within 2 hours from the end of each examination.
2. Students are also directed to write their answers in their own handwriting
3. Students may be asked to appear before the Board of Discipline and their results may remain withheld (RW) in case of the following reasons as reported by the examiners or chairpersons and the fate of such students shall be decided by the Board of Discipline. The decision of the Board of Discipline shall be treated as final.
 - i) Similarity of languages, length, style and patterns of answers written by the students.
 - ii) Same handwriting in more than one answer script or different handwritings in the same answer script submitted by the student(s).
4. Credits and more weightage shall be given to answers which are precise and to the point.

The above guidelines have been issued as directed by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor.
